Dr. Robert J. Brueck MD FACS, a board certified cosmetic surgeon in Southwest Florida. has joined the international shopping community, Lyoness, through which he will offer cashback to Lyoness members on surgical and non-surgical procedures.

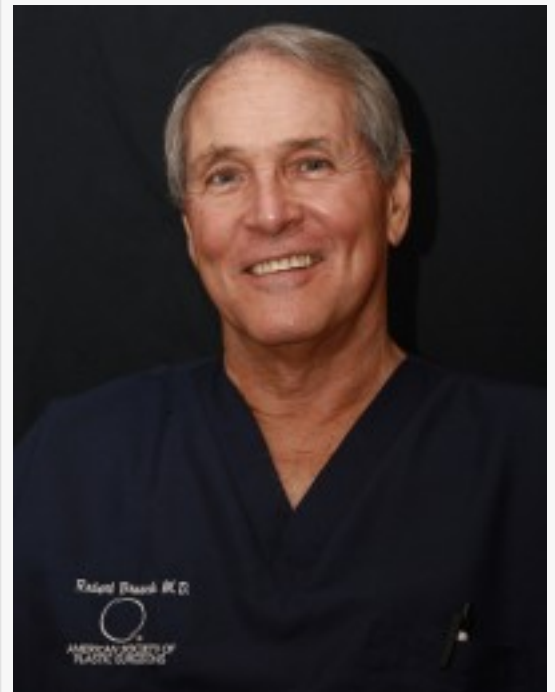

Lyoness is an international organization that provides members with cashback payments representing a percentage of every purchase made by a Lyoness member with a Lyoness Loyalty Merchant anywhere in the world. According to Dr. Brueck, the usual Lyoness cashback payment averages 1% to 5%, depending on the Loyalty Merchant involved. Dr. Brueck says he will offer 15% cashback on any surgical or non-surgical procedure he performs for a Lyoness member. The cashback funds are automatically deposited in the member's bank account. In addition, Loyalty Merchants may recommend new members, whose purchases will accrue to a friendship benefit account.

Lyoness was founded as a shopping community in Austria in 2003 and rapidly expanded to more than 40 countries worldwide. It has subsequently included members and Loyalty merchants in North America, South America, Asia and Africa. More than 2.5 million people world wide are members today of Lyoness. Membership is free and does not require members to buy anything they do not normally buy in their daily life.

Lyoness also contributes a share of proceeds to educational and environmental causes, such as the Lyoness Child and Family Foundation and The Greenfinity Lyoness Foundation.
