

The Most Unusual Biking Tour

You sail to an island and get dropped off with your bike. After a few hours of biking, your boat picks you up at the other end of island...

SANTA MONICA, CALIFORNIA, UNITED STATES, January 3, 2014

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Santa Monica, California: Mediterra DMC, a Santa Monica, California based tour operator, is launching 2014 Dalmatian (Adriatic) Island-hopping Cruise and Cycling Tour, the most popular Croatian program that was virtually sold out for 2013. One of the most unusual biking tours will have 17 guaranteed departures in 2014.

Cruises will operate every Saturday starting April 19 and will feature

Dalmatian island-hopping cruise and cycling tours every day on different island. A 7-night cruise on a small ship includes accommodations in double cabins, daily breakfast and lunch, a bike and cycling gear rental and many extras. The cruise will depart from main harbor in the city of Split and will visit some of the most popular and exotic islands in the Adriatic, including the acclaimed islands of Hvar, Korcula and Mljet. The ship will drop off bikers at one end of an island and pick them up at other side of the island allowing bikers to pedal 2-4 hours every day.

For early bookings in 2013 Mediterra is offering number of discounts and deals like free air from any European city to Croatia, 10% customer discount, free transfers and up to 15% additional discount for groups.
