ALBUQUERQUE, NM, USA, January 30, 2014 /EINPresswire.com/ -- ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. - Top producing Albuquerque REALTOR® Joe Maez is launching a new interactive home search tool that covers all of New Mexico's real estate market at <http://AlbuquerqueRealEstatePlus.com>. While specializing in the Albuquerque area, Maez says the statewide approach was designed to help home buyers and sellers anywhere in the state to find the information they're looking for.

"We're really excited to get the word out about our new site, because the map search tools make it an amazing search engine for buyers to find the perfect Albuquerque real estate," Maez says.

According to Maez, users can easily add map overlays for school boundaries in any city so they can visually pan and zoom neighborhoods to find deals in the exact communities they want.

"We're totally taking the guesswork out of the home search process. For serious buyers, there's no better search tool to dig deep and find those hidden gems," he says.

Maez says the map search feature is one of the most advanced available, because it lets the average user customize their search with hundreds of available fields normally only accessible to the professionals.

"Our goal is to put the buyer in the driver's seat by providing as much control over the listing data as possible," he says.

"We're not interested in hoarding control over the home search process. We are all about providing the highest level of client service, and our clients are asking us for more control, not less," he adds.

He also notes that listing data is more up-to-date than the big national sites, because his website pulls in data from its source, the MLS.

"Our website users don't need to waste dozens of hours chasing bad listings based on stale data, like outdated price or listing status. Our information is guaranteed fresh; the national real estate websites can't say that," he says.

In addition to advanced home search features, Maez says that his team has preselected popular searches for cities, such as Albuquerque foreclosures, Rio Rancho new homes, and more.

"I highly recommend that serious Albuquerque area home buyers check out this new tool. Just go to AlbuquerqueRealEstatePlus.com and click 'Search' to get started!"
