

The Door Store Sees Positive Reviews

Warwickshire based retailer The Door Store have seen positive reviews fly in after a recent push for reviews from online customers.

LEAMINGTON SPA, WARWICKSHIRE, UK, May 28, 2014 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Based in Warwickshire, the family run Door Store have been trading from their Royal Leamington Spa showroom for over a decade - though in recent years they've since expanded to trade online as well.

This has proved to be hugely successful, with critical acclaim from customers earning them a rating of 9.3/10 on the popular Trustpilot review service, and has comfortably placed them in the Top Ten of Trustpilot's 'Door and Windows' online retailers.

From relatively local customers to those further afield, The Door Store has generated tens of positive reviews for all sorts of orders from several doors for a new build home, through to a can of wood stain for external door treatment.

Key Points

The Door Store have learned throughout the years and made significant online progress to now see significant traffic and orders come through the website. Their website offers a few key points which are key to their success and offer customers excellent service and value for money.

- Free Delivery

Great when placing an order of several doors at once, The Door Store have adapted their delivery policy and now offer Free Delivery on all orders over £400. This means if you're buying for a new build or to replace several doors all at the same time, you can benefit with what would ordinarily be a costly extra.

- Cards and Paypal Accepted

While previously only credit and debit cards were accepted, The Door Store now offers Paypal as a form of payment, allowing for quick and easy payment whether a customer's order is a few pounds or several hundreds of pounds. What's more, with such a secure and modern method of payment, it's an added element of trust for new and existing customers alike.

- Telephone Support

Even with an online business, telephone support is an absolute necessity, with many customers requiring a person to speak to, whether it's for a simple query or to follow up on the placement of an order. The Door Store offer friendly and experienced staff to either help and advice with your purchase, or to point you in the right direction of a door which would be most suited to your installation requirements.

Whatever your door needs, whether local to Warwickshire or looking to buy online - The Door Store have a showroom open five days a week to allow customers to come and see the doors first hand - or an online web store for those who are unable to take advantage of the local advantage.

The Door Store are a Royal Leamington Spa based door and home accessories company, offering home interior products available to buy from their showroom and online.
