The Lisle Convention & Visitors Bureau, recently unveiled Stay In Lisle, a new website devoted to Chicago event venues and hotels in the western suburb.

LISLE, IL, USA, August 29, 2014 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Lisle Convention & Visitors Bureau is welcoming guests and event planners in Chicago to the western suburb with a highly interactive new website. Located at www.stayinlisle.com, the new site is certain to make the job easier for event planners who need to find venues and hotels near Chicago.

Features of the new website include:

- Customized inner pages that allow users to easily add slideshows and testimonials.
- A custom events calendar where site visitors can query events or quickly scroll through the months and view at-a-glance the events held on specific dates.
- A multiplayer slideshow that highlights the many events, features and attractions in the Lisle area. A built-in video further highlights area amenities and Chicago event venues.

"The new site is highly interactive for visitors and very easy for us to manage on our end too. We couldn't be more pleased with how it turned out. It has everything an event planner needs to get started identifying a venue in Lisle in a very easy to use format," said Diane Homolka, Executive Director of the Lisle Convention & Visitors Bureau (www.stayinlisle.com).

Event planners will appreciate the site's "Hotels" and "Meeting & Event Planning" sections, which are both informative and practical. Planners can submit RFPs online and download a free event planning toolkit and Visitor's Guide from the Bureau.

"Although we wanted the site to be useful to event planners, it's just as informative for residents and visitors. The 'Explore Lisle' sections contains plenty of information about what to do in Lisle and where to stay while the 'Local Events' calendar keeps site visitors up-to-date on the latest goings-on in the area," explained Homolka.

For those looking for a little more insight into the events and amenities Lisle has to offer, the blog section fits the bill. Between posts about specific events and those that highlight venues and special offers, the Lisle CVB blog is full of useful tips and insider information to help event planners settle on a venue location.
