

IceWEB Name Change and Reverse Split is Complete

Company has new Name, Stock Symbol and CUSIP Number

FAIRFAX, VA, USA, January 5, 2015 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Fairfax, VA. - January 5, 2015— IceWEB, Inc.™ (OTC BB:IWEB) announced today, it has completed its name change and the reverse split of its stock 1 for 400. The new company name is UNIFIEDONLINE!, INC., and the new stock symbol is OTC BB: UOIP. Shareholders will receive new stock certificates with the new CUSIP numbers and in the reversed amount of their shares.

UnifiedOnline!, Inc. CEO Rob Howe said, "It's an exciting new day for our company. Simultaneously, we will launch our new website—devoted to our core businesses—Wireless Internet Service Provisioning, and Datacenter Services from our two subsidiaries, CTC Wireless and KC NAP. This marks completion of the first phase in our change in strategy from a hardware-based business to a Cloud Services business. And we're just getting started. There's much more exciting news as well. You'll see us branching out in our quest to build a nationwide footprint of Wireless Internet Service Providers (WISPs). We're going in search of the best operated WISPs in the fringe metro and rural areas of the US—areas where the majors are not building physical infrastructure because of the great cost and long payback cycles of their old physical infrastructure model. Wireless, and its new technology, is the perfect way to reach these areas and provide them with the broadband speeds and affordable costs that small-to-medium businesses in those areas need to be competitive."

We're also branching into the area of Intellectual Property Monetization around patent portfolios we're negotiating in our lines of business; there'll be more on that later.

I've never been more excited to be a part of anything as I am to be making these changes. We've worked extremely hard to get our company into position to make this happen. Our model is sound; our approach is right; our systems are perfected, and our resolve is solid. Come along with us! Be a part of UNIFIEDONLINE!, INC (UOIP: OTC BB). It's a new day and a bright future!" Howe said.
