

'The Nicole Barrett Show': Legendary Actress, Ruta Lee on Politics, Victoria Rowell on 'YR' and More

Nicole Barrett adds new flavor to morning T.V, with one on one, in depth, entertaining, and sometimes comical chats with some of your favorite Living Legends.

DALLAS, TEXAS, USA, March 2, 2015 /EINPresswire.com/ -- She's back! Nicole Barrett, Actress and Talk Show Host, kicks off a full season of 'The Nicole Barrett Show' on March 2, 2015 on KTXD-TV (in #5 market, Dallas/Ft.Worth) featuring in depth interviews, shocking revelations, laughs, tears and more with some of our favorite Legendary stars.

Backstage stories, great memories, tragedy and triumph, Nicole Barrett goes deep inside and gets the true story on what happened then- and where are they now. The conversations are often spirited and nothing is off limits.

During her six week trial run, last Fall, Nicole sat down with Rev. Jesse Jackson to talk about the Ebola crisis and being the last person to speak with Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., before he was assassinated. "We were...traumatized after he was killed," Rev. Jackson says of Dr. King.

Tippi Hedren gave Nicole a private tour of her wildlife preserve-Shambala, while discussing in depth, what it was really like to work with Alfred Hitchcock, and how rejecting his sexual advances cost her her career. According to Hedren, "He ruined my career. But, he didn't ruin my life."

During revealing conversations with such Legends as: Shirley Jones (who proved she is no Mrs. Partridge), Lou Gossett, Jr., Stephanie Powers, Rich Little, Frances Fisher, Hal Linden, and many more, Nicole Barrett gets the answers audiences have been wanting to know for decades. In the two part Season Finale, Nicole sat down with Kathleen Bradley, the first Black Spokesmodel on 'The Price is Right', who revealed the backstage secrets, sex scandals, and sexism of TV's most popular game show.

I don't think he's a Communist, but I think he is of that persuasion. You are what you are brought up to be!"

Ruta Lee, on President Obama

In the NEW season, it only gets better. Currently starring in 'Steel Magnolias' at Casa Manana Theater in Ft. Worth, Texas, Legendary Actress, Ruta Lee, joins Nicole in the season premiere for an uncensored chat about her career, conservative political views, and social issues. It's a hot show! Also, Actress, Victoria Rowell (who has since sued CBS) tells Nicole Barrett why she left 'The Young and the Restless' and will she return? Bernadette Stanis and John Amos from the cast of 'Good Times' share memories of the show and why they are truly a part of television history. Also, Bernadette responds to her connection to Kathleen Bradley, who is Stepmother to Bernadette's daughter. It's a HOT season, already! There will be many more Legends and many more stories on 'The Nicole Barrett Show'.
