required and customary approvals by BMW. Bush purchased the dealership form long time Yakima auto dealer Dick Hahn of Hahn Motor Company. MD Johnson Inc represented Mr. Hahn in the sale to Tim Bush. Bush relocated the dealership to suburban Richland WA. Prior to Bushs' relocation, the Tri Cities had not had a BMW dealer for over 20 years.

Bush, a well known auto dealer and real estate developer had previously owned the Suzuki franchise in the Tri Cities along with his separate pre owned vehicle business. Mark Topping was the transaction manger for MD Johnson Inc in the sale of the dealership to Martinez. Mark Johnson, President of MD Johnson Inc commented that “Tim has enjoyed his time in the automobile business and will continue to expand his growing full service automated car wash business in the greater Pasco, Richland and Kennewick areas”. Bush is joined in his business by sons TJ Bush and Blake Bush. Martinez's Town & Country group also owns Town & Country Honda (www.tchondagladstone.com) in Gladstone Oregon, a suburb of Portland. Martinez stated that “we are very happy to be a part of the BMW family. BMW is considered at the top of the luxury brands and we are excited to represent them in the Tri Cities”.
