

The 22nd Africa Oil Week being held in Cape Town, October 26th- 30th, 2015

CAPE TOWN, SOUTH AFRICA, May 5, 2015 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The 22nd Africa Oil Week provides a week long event of rich-content with highest quality, first-class networking and social interface, with multiple opportunities for all to create and cement relationships that will shape the future for oil and gas in Africa, and the economic future of the Continent. Global Pacific & Partners and ITE Group plc are pleased to invite you to join them for the 22nd Anniversary Africa Oil Week/Africa Upstream Conference 2015, the longest-running and most prominent event held worldwide in or on the Continent for its fast-growing oil, gas-LNG and energy industry, taking place 26th-30th October 2015 at the Cape Town International Convention Centre.

Once again, including this year's 13th Africa Independents Forum 2015 the 17th Scramble for Africa: Strategy Briefing, and 4-day 22nd Africa Upstream 2015 format, they welcome their blue-chip suite of world-class sponsors, an unrivalled spectrum of top-line speakers, a globally-diversified mix of senior-level government and corporate delegates, plus a much larger dedicated industry Safari Park Exhibition than ever before,

The occasion includes their Inaugural Africa Oil & Energy Finance Forum, the 72nd PetroAfricanus Dinner in Africa (with Guest Speaker: Dr Peter Dolan, Founder and Advisor, Ophir Energy), along with special meetings on Africa Local Content, Africa Exploration Technologies, Young Professionals in Africa, the Global Women Petroleum & Energy Club Luncheon (with Guest Speaker Cath Norman, Managing Director, FAR Ltd), the 3rd Africa's Hydrocarbon Arguments Discourse, the 20th Anniversary Luncheon for the African Institute of Petroleum, alongside their 19th Annual Board Awards and Africa's Oil Legend Ceremony, in tribute to those who have "made" Africa's oil-gas game.

Speakers Confirmed include:
