

The world's most senior-level annual oil and gas-LNG event held in, on and for Africa

CAPE TOWN, SOUTH AFRICA, June 11, 2015 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Global Pacific & Partners will host the 22nd Africa Oil Week/Africa Upstream Conference 2015, in JV with ITE Group plc, in Cape Town 26th– 30th October, at Cape Town International Convention

Center where around 1600 delegates assembled in 2014. Africa Oil Week is the landmark corporate occasion for the Continent, a meeting with global reputation, and one of few top world-class events held annually at a continental-level in the world's E&P industry Calendar. The 22nd Africa Upstream Conference 2015 runs Tuesday-to-Friday, with a full three-and-half day program, with 120 Speakers from Governments, leading private/public companies, African National Oil Companies, Licensing Agencies, and key players inside Africa's oil/gas-LNG industry value chain.

The 13th Africa Independents Forum takes place alongside the 17th Scramble for Africa Strategy Briefing, on Monday 26th October, followed by the 71st PetroAfricanus Dinner in Africa (with Guest Speaker), and the traditional Icebreaker Cocktail Reception for Africa Oil Week held on Monday evening.
