

Art Studio Views Event Details Announced in Hudson Valley, New York

Private Studios of Thirty-one Artists Will Welcome Guests During 8th Annual Labor Day Weekend Art Studio Views

RHINEBECK, NY, UNITED STATES, June 23, 2015 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The 8th annual Art Studio Views tour, held over Labor Day weekend, has expanded this year beyond the border of Northern Dutchess County to include artists from Southern Columbia County. This free, self-guided event will be open to the public on Saturday, September 5 and Sunday, September 6 from 11am-5pm each day.

Over the two days, studio doors swing open, inviting visitors into the inner workings of active and creative environments. Seeing new works in progress and items for sale is just part of the experience. Best of all, tour guests have the extraordinary opportunity to speak directly with the artists about their work, experience the studio setting, and observe the innovative processes needed to produce these high-quality artworks.

“The Arts are a vital part of the culture in the Hudson Valley, attracting hundreds of visitors and art buyers who patronize local businesses and increase tourism to the area. Art Studio Views celebrates the deeply personal experiences of each artist, giving them a chance to showcase their creative space, and offering attendees an opportunity to take an intimate look at the studios where exceptional work is born,” Hess added. “Artists will be available at each location to answer questions and discuss work on display. Artwork will also be available for purchase.”

Tours are self-guided, and visitors can pick up maps at one of the three Art Studio Views headquarter locations: Tivoli Artist Gallery, Tivoli; Betsy Jacaruso Studio & Gallery, Rhinebeck; or the Artists’ Collective of Hyde Park, Hyde Park.
