WATERFORD, MICHIGAN , USA, August 1, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Certified by the Department of Veterans Affairs (VOSB) and the National Veteran Business Development Council (NVBDC) as veteran owned, Contract Professionals, Inc. (CPI) recently won Metro Detroit's Best and Brightest Companies to Work For 2016. This is the second year in a row that CPI has been honored with this award.

"We are proud that CPI has been recognized as one of Metro Detroit's Best & Brightest Companies to Work For. Their continued efforts to employ veterans are to be commended," said Matt Sherwood, Executive Director, VetBizCentral.

Sherwood was responsible for nominating CPI for the SBA's Veteran Owned Business of the Year, Michigan, 2016, which the founder and owner, Steve York accepted in front of hundreds of business owners, entrepreneurs and Governor Rick Snyder in May 2016.

The CPI team will accept their Best and Brightest award at the Detroit Marriott at the Renaissance Center, on September 23, 2016.

"We take immense pride in winning this award from the Best and Brightest committee for two consecutive years. This very special award caps off a year of a series of honors and awards for CPI, including Crain's Cool Places to Work 2016 and the SBA award," said Jim Cowper, President, CPI.

The Founder and CEO of CPI, Steve York is proud of CPI's dedication to developing human resource plans, which focus on work/life balance, employee wellness and company perks. "We are honored to receive this award. We will continue our efforts to ensure that our veterans and our employees have the resources they need to succeed in their careers," said York.
