

Among Legends' New Single "We Were Vaguely Saints" Now Available Worldwide

After an exclusive premiere through Exclaim! Music, Among Legends' latest single "We Were Vaguely Saints" is now available worldwide.

WATERLOO, ONTARIO, CANADA, September 16, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- After an exclusive premiere through Exclaim! Music, Waterloo pop-punk trio Among Legends' latest single "We Were Vaguely Saints" is now available for streaming and download worldwide.

"We Were Vaguely Saints" is our most cohesive and powerful song yet," said Cameron Bechtoff, lead guitarist of Among Legends. "It's a testament to how hard the band has worked to continuously improve our technical skills, as well as our song creation skills."

"We Were Vaguely Saints" was picked up by Canadian media publication Exclaim! and received a full-week premiere exclusively on the Exclaim! Music website. News of the premiere spread to other notable music websites, including Dying Scene, Punk Rock Theory, and Screaming Guitars.

"We are extremely appreciative of Exclaim! for premiering the new single," said Anthony Amorim, bassist of Among Legends. "We're proud to be a Canadian band, and it's terrific to have national publications like Exclaim! supporting Canadian musicians."

"We Were Vaguely Saints" is now available on YouTube, Bandcamp and SoundCloud. In the coming days, it will be published across all major music platforms, including Spotify, Google Play, iTunes, Deezer, TIDAL, and more.
