

‘Fredrick the Butterfly:’ Malibu author celebrates wonders of nature, harmony in juvenile fiction

Author Karen Ann Smythe imparts God-inspired values as she spins a touching tale of wonderment in her fun-filled book, “Fredrick the Butterfly.”

MALIBU, CALIF., UNITED STATES, September 15, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- MALIBU, Calif. – Author Karen Ann Smythe imparts God-inspired values among young readers as she spins a touching tale of wonderment and admiration in her fun-filled book, “Fredrick the Butterfly.”

“Fredrick the Butterfly” shares a poignant story of the awe-inspiring beauty of nature and the incredible experience shared by a family when they save a butterfly's life. Smythe's literary write-up celebrates the wonders of the natural world and living in harmony with life.

“The story happened 25 years ago and I just really had to share it with everyone! Tate Publishing was the first publisher I connected with and I immediately felt safe with them,” Smythe shares, when asked about the inspiration behind her book and the journey towards its publication.

An amazing story with a winning and enlightening plot that readers young and old will love!

Taylor Michaud, Acquisitions Editor, Tate Publishing
