

Florida authors exposes real Islam, discloses status quo in intriguing study

Boseman authors recently partnered with Tate Publishing to begin the publication process of their political exposé, “Radical Islam – Past, Present, and Future.”

PENSACOLA, FLA., UNITED STATES, September 20, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- PENSACOLA, Fla. – Authors Anita and Vann Boseman recently partnered with Tate Publishing to kick-start the publication process of their religious and political exposé, “Radical Islam – Past, Present, and Future: What Moderate Muslims Will Not Tell You.”

An illuminating, thought-provoking study, “Radical Islam” is a look at the history of Radical Islam, the trans-Saharan slave trade, and the future of Islam under ISIS. It answers the questions of why they hate us and offers a side by side comparison between Islam and Christianity, and Mohammed and Jesus. This book answers questions and prepares the reader to ask more.

An intriguing exposé that fully shows people the reality behind the Islams, their faith, and the political conspiracies masked behind it.

Stacy Baker, Acquisitions Editor, Tate Publishing

“This book was written in only a few months, but one of the authors lived in the Middle East for many years and understood what was happening with Radical Islam. It was a story we had to tell and with the addition of the detailing of the trans-Saharan slave trade, it put the lie to the idea that Islam is the 'natural' religion of people of color,” the Bosemans shared, when asked about the inspiration behind their book.

“We hope they will comprehend, as we do, that we are in a war. Until they know this and can recognize the enemy, they will never know how to fight back. This war will not be won with bombs or bullets, although they will be needed for some phases, but it must be fought with ideas, an understanding of the danger we are in if we fail, and the strength to fight for our own culture. Political correctness and multiculturalism open the door to our defeat, this must not be allowed to weaken us or the Radical Islamists will defeat us all.”

“Anita and Vann are able to create an intriguing exposé that fully shows people the reality behind the Islams, their faith, and the political conspiracies masked behind it. Popular misconceptions often formulated with deception are the status quo. The media, politicians, and paid advocates of deceit have tried to keep the history, implementation, and reality from the public and this book exposes all of that,” states Stacy Baker, Acquisitions Editor for Tate Publishing.

Published by Tate Publishing and Enterprises, the book is available through bookstores nationwide, from the publisher at www.tatepublishing.com/bookstore, or by visiting barnesandnoble.com or amazon.com.

The Bosemans are a husband-and-wife team. Vann is originally from Raleigh, North Carolina, and Anita hails from Jasper, Indiana. Vann has lived in Pensacola, FL for many years and before moving to Florida, Anita always considered Houston, Texas to be her home when she was in the country.

Anita's late husband was a Greek Orthodox Lebanese Christian. He and Anita were married for almost 30 years and during that time, she lived, worked and traveled extensively in the Middle East. Much of the background for this book came from her time there and discussions she had with her late husband, friends and students in the school where she has taught.

Vann Boseman is currently working on his Master's in History and Anita is pursuing a Ph.D. Anita has master's degrees in History and Political Science. She enjoys writing and in addition to the non-fiction she is currently writing with her husband as a follow on to this book, she had penned the beginnings of a family saga. The first, "Farr Cottage," is available from Tate Publishing, the second book will be available before Christmas and the third book is in the works.
