

IT Governance partners with MFG Managed Encryption to deliver cyber security solutions

ELY, CAMBRIDGESHIRE, UNITED KINGDOM, September 19, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- IT Governance, the leading provider of cyber security consultancy, is excited to announce its partnership with encryption solutions provider MFG Managed Encryption to deliver and enhance their cyber security products and services.

Alan Calder, founder and chief executive officer of IT Governance, says: "As a major provider of cyber security and information security management expertise, we are delighted that, in conjunction with our partner, MFG Managed Encryption, we are able to expand our offerings and help organisations achieve the highest standard for cyber security practices."

The partnership is designed to guide MFG Managed Encryption to accreditation under the UK Government's Cyber Essentials scheme, and in a number of international standards such as ISO 27001, ISO 9001 and ISO 14001. In gaining these certifications, MFG Managed Encryptions will be able to help its clients become cyber secure.

"Our partnership with IT Governance will now allow us to provide our customers with expert advice on compliance and regulatory requirements. Keeping our customers informed on regulatory requirements is something we take very seriously, especially with data security on the rise," says Mark Flinders, managing director of MFG Managed Encryption.

As a partner, MFG Managed Encryption will be able to provide cyber security training, consultancy, toolkits and books to help their clients overcome continuously evolving cyber threats.

"Alongside IT Governance, MFG Managed Encryption can confidently offer a solution to provide full security to businesses with our full range of encryption products, including full disk encryption and cloud based encryption, as well as cyber security services", Mark Flinders continued.

To complement its extensive range of products and services, IT Governance works with industry-leading third-party organisations to deliver exceptional value and secure client loyalty.
