Scottsdale, AZ: Moving America Forward, a national television series celebrating the achievements and contributions of businesses and entrepreneurs across America recently interviewed Jeff Junior, President of Trajan Wealth about his long term success in helping people navigate the ever-changing economic landscape.

The show, hosted by William Shatner and Doug Llewelyn is dedicated to delivering quality educational programming honoring a variety of business owners that are moving our country forward.

Trajan Wealth was chosen as one of these businesses for their outstanding work in helping individuals and couples better understand and prepare for the challenges associated with retirement.

In this episode of Moving America Forward, Jeff Junior talks about common problems and concerns of pre-retirees and why working with an Advisor with a fiduciary standard is so important. He also shares his story of how a young Marine got started in the financial planning business and how Trajan Wealth can help people at any stage of life to secure their best financial future. In addition to retirement planning, Trajan Wealth also offers the following services:

- Money Management
- Annuities
- Income Planning
- Insurance
- 401K Planning
- Trusts and Wills
