Los Angeles, CA, October 26, 2016 – Pacific Coast Wrestling (PCW) announced today that it signed Light Heavyweight Champion, “Mr. 450” John Jesus Yurnet to wrestle exclusively for the promotion in Southern California during its 2017 events.

“The Last of His Kind” Mr. 450 has had success around the world. He held Junior Heavyweight/Light Heavyweight championships for New Wrestling Stars (NWS), International Wrestling Association (IWA) and World Wrestling Council (WWC), and is the only wrestler to win the Junior Heavyweight/Light Heavyweight titles in all three main Puerto Rican companies. 450 has also held the WWC Television and Universal Heavyweight Championships. He has had 5-star matches with former WWE Champion Rey Mysterio Jr., Lucha Underground and New Japan Pro Wrestling’s (NJPW) Ricochet, and of course PCW’s Scorpio Sky, where he won the PCW Light Heavyweight Championship. 450 has appeared on WWE NXT several times, and was ranked in Pro Wrestling Illustrated’s Top 500 wrestlers of 2016.

“Mr. 450 brings a kind of excitement and energy to the ring that very few wrestlers possess,” stated Mike Scharnagl, PCW’s Owner. “PCW fans saw just of glimpse of 450’s amazing arsenal in August, and we are happy to announce that they will be watching him in PCW for our entire 2017 season.”

Terms of the agreement were not released; however PCW will be offering Mr. 450 branded merchandise and memorabilia while the superstar competes for the promotion during its 2017 events. Mr. 450 is scheduled to wrestle the Oracle on its November 12 event – Clear the Way – in Torrance, CA.

Further information, tickets and merchandise can be found online at pacificcoastwrestling.com.
