

David Howe Provides Lee Port Authority, Florida AG, and Wink News' Sablan Proof of Crimes at National Car Rental

Howe has also notified attorney Morgan and Morgan for class-action review and intends to pursue a compensatory and special punitive damage case

FORT MYERS, FL, U.S.A., December 15, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- SubscriberWise, the nation's largest issuing consumer reporting agency for the communications industry and the leading protector of children victimized by identity theft nationwide, announced today that company founder and credit czar David Howe has contacted federal and local law enforcement professionals with categorical evidence of criminal activity at the National Car Rental (<https://www.nationalcar.com/>) located at the Fort Myers International Airport.

“On Tuesday, December 13, 2016, I met with law enforcement professionals from the Lee County Port Authority located on the property of the Southwest Florida International Airport,” confirmed David Howe, president and CEO for SubscriberWise. “I provided the officers comprehensive documentation of predatory behavior associated with a car rental that originated at Miami International Airport and terminated at the National car rental counter, Fort Myers SW FL International Airport.

I provided officers remarkable evidence - sent directly to me by National's 'Damage Recovery Unit' - that demonstrates stunningly obvious, shocking, and unequivocal proof of criminal activity.”

“In addition, I provided the Officers remarkable evidence - sent directly to me by National car rental 'Damage Recovery Unit' - that demonstrates stunningly obvious, shocking, and unequivocal proof of criminal activity.

“Moreover, I was provided access to internal information at one of the National car rental agencies locations from a manager who offered both conjecture and evidence with an extremely damning claim consistent with the criminal documentation previously submitted to police. I promptly contacted a Lee County Port Authority detective investigating this crime with the shocking information.

“The manager was concerned about losing his position but was motivated to help after he reviewed the crime evidence. He also provided an alternate personal email address and asked that there be no contact with his National company email. I thanked him and promised him that I would only provide his identity and personal email to police or law enforcement agencies,” Howe continued. “I had a similar encounter from another manager at a Florida airport counter. He also provided damning evidence of predatory and potentially criminal activity. He allowed me to photograph everything for police and this evidence is now in their hands as well as the news media.

“Yesterday I provided a verbal description of the circumstances of the crime and alleged high-level-criminal-enterprise to the Florida Attorney General following a phone call from their office at approximately 10:30 AM. Just hours earlier, I notified the FBI Washington Division with an abbreviated version and was advised the details would be noted and maintained on file.

“Finally, I had the pleasure to meet with Wink News Reporter and Anchor Lindsey Sablan in my home for a thorough review of the same predatory and criminal evidence that was provided to police,” Howe said. “The in-depth interview was equally thorough and I’m hopeful that the outcome will mean compensatory justice, for not only other Floridians who have been exploited, but also for our sisters and brothers from the U.S.A. and around the world who likely have been criminally victimized by this highly sophisticated criminal economic scheme.

“President-elect Donald Trump, U.S. Congress, Florida lawmakers, and other state and federal government or official entities are encouraged to direct questions or concerns to the Lee County Port Authority police, or to Florida Attorney General Pam Bondi’s office.

“Of course I am available to answer questions or provide information as well.

“In my long and professional career protecting the nation's children from identity fraud (<http://www.businesswire.com/news/home/20161202005592/en>) and having exposed some of the most complicated crimes against the banking and financial system (<http://www.businesswire.com/news/home/20150606005019/en/FBI-Interviews-SubscriberWise-CEO>), I must say that the level of sophistication associated with this economic criminal activity at National car rental is even breathtaking for me. I have little doubt that the orchestration is originating from the top, particularly after having met with managers at locations around south Florida. I hope my effort and involvement brings swift and dramatic change to the car rental industry.

“Lawmakers take notice,” Howe concluded. “You’ll be hearing from your credit czar.”

About SubscriberWise

SubscriberWise® launched as the first issuing consumer reporting agency exclusively for the cable industry in 2006. The company filed extensive documentation and end-user agreements to access TransUnion's consumer database. TransUnion approved the request as part of a pilot project in 2007. In 2009, SubscriberWise and TransUnion announced a joint marketing agreement for the benefit of America's cable operators. Today SubscriberWise is a risk management preferred-solutions provider for the National Cable Television Cooperative.

SubscriberWise was founded by David Howe, who is a consultant and credit manager for MCTV, where he has remained employed for two decades. At MCTV, Howe manages the bad debt and equipment losses on annual sales in excess of $60 million. During his 20-year career at MCTV, Howe has reviewed more than 60,000 credit submissions. His interest in credit began in 1986 as a 17-year-old student in high school.

Over the past decade, Howe has been consulted by every leading communications operator in the country. Howe's passion with credit and risk management can be found everywhere in the industry today. Today, SubscriberWise touches a U.S. consumer every minute of every hour of every day.

Having directly prevented multitudes more child identity thefts than any single individual including law enforcement professionals nationwide, David Howe is recognized as one of the most productive and engaged child identity theft experts of the 21st century. Howe's expertise on the subject of identity theft has been shared with virtually all levels of state and federal law enforcement agencies including field agents from the FBI. In 2014, Howe was contacted by IBM's RedCell Counter Fraud and Financial Crimes Intelligence organization for training and information concerning child identity fraud.

Howe is also the highest FICO and Vantage Achiever in worldwide banking and financial history. Howe is the only known individual – living or deceased – to have obtained and documented simultaneous perfect FICO and Vantage Scores across every national credit bureau.
