WASHINGTON, D.C., U.S.A., March 22, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- SubscriberWise, the leading provider of analytics-driven subscriber risk management technology and the nation's largest issuing CRA for the communications industry, announced today the 2017 NCTC Winter Educational Conference 'Big Data' interview with ViodiTV's Ken Pyle recorded live at the Sheraton New Orleans Hotel on February 21, 2017. The conversation focused on NCTC members' use of risk and decision analytics following a highly informative conference that included a panel session directed toward marketing efforts and Big Data.

"On Monday afternoon I received the 'editor's cut' video release from Ken Pyle, Managing Editor of ViodiTV," confirmed David Howe, SubscriberWise founder, FICO worldwide highest achiever, Credit Czar, and America's most productive child protector. "I shared the presentation with ACA Chair and MCTV President Robert Gessner, along with SubscriberWise CFO and board member David Hoffer, for their review and approval. Except for Ken Pyle, no others had viewed the critically important content that focused, in large part, on child identity theft.

With more than 200 child victims each and every day in the nation, I'm hopeful we will finally have action instead of talk."

"On Monday night, after a final review of the content, I made the important and executive decision to Tweet President Trump and fellow child-advocate Ivanka. I sent the Tweet to the President's Twitter account as well as Ivanka's account separately," Howe added. "Although I have received no response from the President or Ms. Trump -- and I also don't have knowledge if either viewed the interview -- I nevertheless thought it paramount for Mr. President and Ivanka to be first to receive.

"With more than 200 child victims each and every day in the nation, I'm hopeful we will finally have action instead of talk," the U.S. and global Credit Czar concluded.

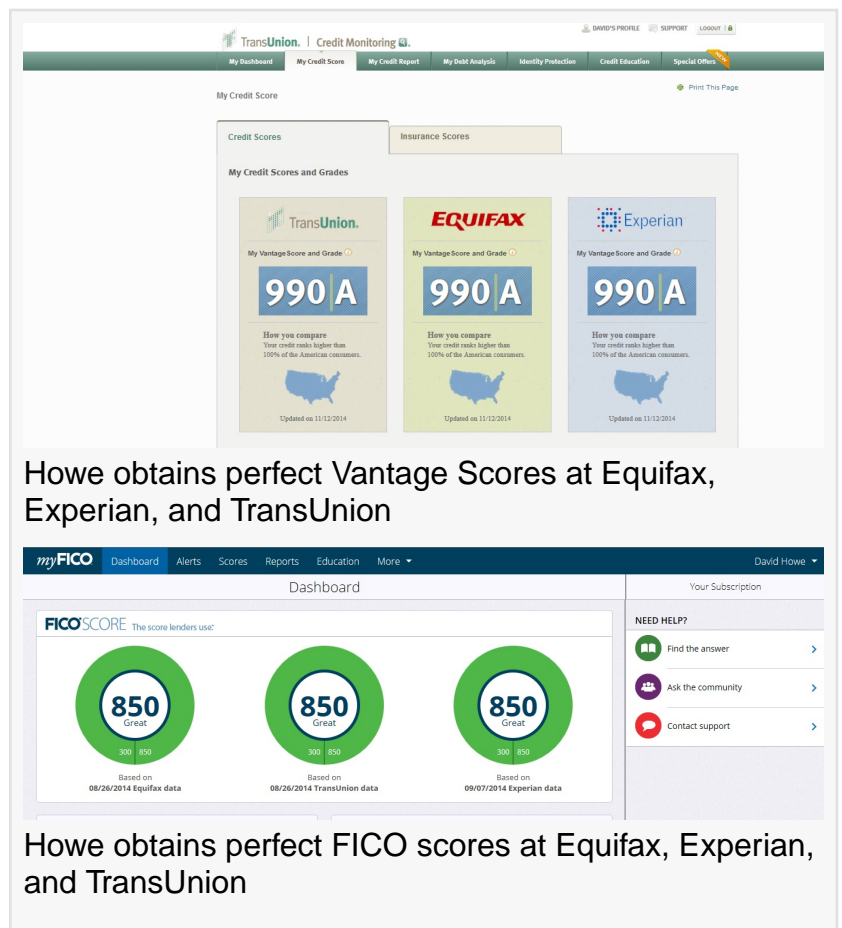

About David Howe and SubscriberWise

U.S. Credit Czar David Howe is the highest achieving credit scoring consumer in global banking and financial history since human beings started to count on their fingers. Howe intends to demystify consumer credit and credit scores for individuals everywhere by sharing his story and experiences. Credit and credit scores impact many areas of one's financial life. Excellent credit offers rewards and opportunities; adverse credit limits choices and costs real money.

Hearing the facts about credit scores from the only citizen of the world - living or deceased - to have achieved simultaneous perfect FICO 850 scores across every national repository and simultaneous perfect Vantage scores at Equifax, Experian, and TransUnion - as well as having obtained rankings in the 100th percentile across virtually every scoring model on the market -- is intended to empower and encourage consumers who may be struggling with their credit and eager to get back on their feet.

Pursuing perfect credit is hardly the point and it shouldn't become an obsession; rather it is the fact that it's possible. It requires patience and extremely careful financial maneuvers over a very long period. And because no person can control life events, set-backs are inevitable. David Howe proves it's attainable despite his own challenges and life events during his near half-century existence on planet earth. Howe has literally invested decades with countless hours and thousands of dollars pursuing and mastering personal credit and FICO scores in particular. The effort has paid off and has not gone unnoticed.

Howe's passion with credit and risk management can be found everywhere in the industry today. Today SubscriberWise touches a U.S. consumer every minute of every hour of every day. In 2014, SubscriberWise was named winner in the CableFAX Tech Awards in the category of commercial software, among an incredibly competitive environment that was open to every MSO and tech vendor in Having directly prevented more child identity thefts than any single individual including law enforcement professionals nationwide, David Howe is recognized as one of the most productive and engaged child identity theft experts of the 21st century. Howe's expertise on the subject of identity theft has been shared with virtually all levels of state and federal law enforcement agencies including field agents from the FBI. In 2014, Howe was contacted by IBM's RedCell Counter Fraud and Financial Crimes

Intelligence organization for training and information concerning child identity fraud. During his long career in telecommunications, Howe has exposed some of the most complex banking and financial crimes the U.S.A. has ever known or contemplated

Despite being a dedicated and hard worker, Howe is a vagabond and minimalist who prefers to travel from city to city - on a whim - and at his sole discretion; rarely an agenda and often no place in particular. Howe is most contented with a simple existence, an eye on health and wellness, friends and family, warm and sunny climates, and - most especially - a morning coffee and an afternoon imbibe of red wine.

Howe holds an Associate and Bachelor of Arts degree from the College of Arts and Sciences at Kent State University with an academic focus in human behavior at the macro level, political science, and public administration. He is a member of Pi Gamma Mu, the country's oldest and preeminent honor society in the social sciences and Alpha Kappa Delta, the international sociology honor society.

Howe was among the first professionals in the nation to obtain the FICO Professional Certification. Howe was interviewed on the subject of perfect credit by BankRate.com and The Motley Fool and is the first and only citizen of the world to describe the details of perfect FICO and Vantage scores to U.S. reporters.

Howe produced and published two videos on the subject of perfect credit: FICO 850 Credit Report Facts and FICO Scores: The Facts.

SubscriberWise contributions to the communications industry are today quantified in the billions of dollars annually.
