

Millennial Esports to Run North American Halo Championship Series: Open Circuit

LAS VEGAS, NEVADA, UNITED STATES, May 5, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- LAS VEGAS, NEVADA - Millennial Esports Corporation (TSX VENTURE: GAME) is proud to partner with Xbox One and 343 Industries once again and run the Halo Championship Series \(HCS\) Open Circuit. Competition for the HCS Open Circuit began with the Placement Cup on April 29.

The HCS Open Circuit is an open league for amateur Halo players, an active tournament scene that will allow players to form rosters, compete on a regular basis, and climb the standings for a chance to advance to the HCS Pro League relegation matches at the end of each season.

HCS Open Circuit online tournaments will seed players into HCS Daytona, a 4v4 open competition on May 12-14, with a $75,000 prize pool. The HCS Open Circuit will see a total of six online double-elimination tournaments leading up to the finals, DreamHack Atlanta on July 21-23, where open circuit teams will have the chance to earn a spot in the HCS Pro League through relegation.

The next online tournament is scheduled for May 6-7, where the winner receives the overall 8th seed at HCS Daytona and plays in Pro Groups on Friday, May 12. The Winner Bracket Finals, Loser Bracket Finals, and Grand Finals will broadcast live on Twitch.tv/Halo starting at 1:00 p.m. PT.

This past March, Millennial Esports hosted hundreds of gamers for the North American Halo World Championship Regional Qualifiers, inside its new 15,000 square foot esports arena in Downtown Las Vegas. On the partnership between 343 Industries and Millennial Esports, CEO Alex Igelman stated: "343 Industries, Halo and Xbox One are great partners to work with because we all share the same passion for Esports. We look forward to continuing our relationship with them and to doing more exciting things with them in the future."
