

Support in Discovering Talented Young Italian Jazz Musicians in Rome and Record an Album

Award-winning composer and jazz guitarist, Szabolcs Olah, has launched a crowdfunding to help him discover Jazz musicians in Rome and record an album with them

BUDAPEST, BUDAPEST, HUNGARY, June 2, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Szabolcs Olah has just finished composing a new album 'Crystal Brook' but wants to spend some time in Rome to discover some talented young Italian jazz musicians to record the album together and makes it available online and in physical CDs.

To Szabolcs Olah, music is a spiritual food for the soul which he likes to devour all the time. "I've always been passionate about composing music, I think I'm in my happiest mood when I'm writing a song. Music is also a spiritual practice for me, connecting with the ocean of music and ideas, mediating something through music which is unspeakable and mysterious."

In 2007 at Barga Jazz International Competition in Italy, Szabolcs Olah won first prize with his Hungarian Quintet. Also in the same year, while spending some time in Rome, he participated in a workshop with his favorite guitarist, Adam Rogers in the Saint Louis College of Music, and was awarded for being an outstanding guitarist.

In the year 2009, Szabolcs Olah suffered a terrible sickness which kept him away from music for three years but he didn't allow the malady to pull him down, in 2012, he started to compose daily, and today he has over 150 songs. He recorded three albums with his Quintet and is working currently on a duo with a great pianist, Gábor Cseke. Szabolcs's next project is to record Crystal Brook. He wants to spend some months in Rome, the magnificent city he has falling in love with to search for a bassist and a drummer that will help him in making Crystal Brook a reality. He wants to record this new album together with these musicians and also an excellent pianist, Enrico Zanisi whom he met when he was in Braga.

Crystal Brook will be a dream come true to Szabolcs Olah, and this is why he needs your help to make it happen. There will be a great reward for anyone that backs this campaign; with as little as $10 support you will receive a digital copy of the album by e-mail as soon as it has been released. For pledging $20, you will be rewarded with a dedicated copy of the CD with no shipping fee, and for anyone that helps this project with $200, a dedicated physical copy will be sent to the backer. The name of the backer will be indicated on the CD cover which will be shipped worldwide.

Szabolcs Olah has only one month left to reach the target of $20,000 flexible goal, support this talented composer and jazz guitarist on this project.
