The reviews are in on Talent INC Canada's Professional Series with Andrew Mussleman. Micah Kalisch, a student of Andrew's says "After hearing Andrew speak at Talent INC Canada's National Conference, I immediately knew I wanted to receive training from him. Andrew has this incredible ability to take even the most complex concept, break it down into relatable terms and teach his students how to use these tools professionally. I actually use a lot of his techniques when I am on-set. What I love most about him is his overwhelming passion towards acting and actors and his eagerness to dive deep into a scene with his students. He creates the perfect environment to explore and learn".
