Stupidity leads to death.”

Marcus Christ

that he is an authentic prodigy, not only vocally, but musically and lyrically.

have full creative control, keep more royalties, or lease/sell music to others. In "It's Like" you can hear Marcus Christ's ability to blend classical and hip hop masterfully with a young joyful chorus. In his song "We Got These Issues" he tackles tough issues of the modern day we live in over a old school hip-hop beat. Marcus Christ has proven over and over again

Since the upcoming "Prince of the Universe" album is due December 7th which is 5 months away MtB Entertainment announced that this album is definitely going to be a double disc classic work of art. "Considering the price of art after the artist's death I'd say I'm in good shape" says Marcus Todd Brooks the owner of MtB Entertainment. "I understand it sounds morbid, but the only thing a artist wants is for their work to be understood, accepted, and thought-provoking.". MtB Entertainment has recently released "I Get High On The Most High" that is gradually getting more airplay and becoming a topic of conversation in corners around the world. The last commercial single release "If I Die Tonight" is quickly becoming a fan favorite. Marcus Christ promises at least 5 songs nobody has heard at this time will be on the upcoming project due December 7th, 2017.
