Curling Equipment Market 2017

Executive Summary

Curling is an ice sport that is played on an ice sheet and requires players to slide the curling stones over the ice sheet. The target area of the sport is segmented into four corners of the sheet. Two teams, each with four players, participate in the sport. It is also popular as a recreational activity for all age groups as it does not require players to have a strong physique. Considered to be one of the most fascinating sports, curling is popularly known as chess on ice, hybrid of bowling, and shuffleboard.

The analysts forecast the global curling equipment market to grow at a CAGR of 2.01% during the period 2017-2021.
