The United States is the entertainment capital of the world, and the greatest country of opportunities and liberty in the world.”

Beginning singing at the mere age of four years old, the stunningly gifted chanteuse is breathtakingly as talented--as she is lovely to behold. Adoring classical Russian composers Tchaikovsky and Rachmaninoff, as well as a large love of jazz, blues, and American Pop music, Lilia Mai has a level of cultured sophistication well beyond her young 25 years of age.

Hailing as the soloist in the choir at the legendary Raduga, as well as in music school, Lilia also excelled as a soloist singer during her childhood, where she was always happy to sing. Dreaming of becoming a professional singer since she was a young girl, she has since now reached her ambitions as a professional singer.

After training in piano and voice from age 4 to 12 in the musical school named after Rimsky-Korsakov at Raduga for the Committee for Television and Radio Broadcasting; she also trained in percussion and the harp at 7. At just 15, Lilia moved to Berlin, Germany for a year, taking part in an exchange program from Russia, where she furthered her dance training. Wanting to study dance further, Lilia then left to Argentina for a year, to train in Tango and Reggaeton in Columbia. She later traveled to Spain, where she spent months studying Flamenco. It was here that she also learned fluent Spanish, wanting to be able to read Latin American poetry (Poesia), in its native origin. She then began writing a number of songs in Spanish, stating, "this beautiful language became really close to me. It was so inspirational!"

Still a professional dancer who even does belly dancing; Lilia also trained in ballet in Russia, stating, "Russian ballet is the strongest ballet, and the best ballet in the world; with the Bolshoi, and Mariinsky Theatre (formerly the Imperial Russian Ballet), among more." A woman of great education and cultural refinement, she says of her work, "I want everything to be perfect. There is no better place in the world to watch ballet than in the Bolshoi Theatre!" Citing a love of music by all from; Nina Simone, Norah Jones, Diana Ross, Aretha Franklin, Ella Fitzgerald, Alicia Keys, Amy Winehouse, Shakira, and other big, bold voices in American music; the dignified, yet sexy young singer and dancer is also still very flexible and strong.

Also fluent in English, Lilia Mai trained in world languages in school, as well as listening to her favorite; American music--her whole life when growing up. With her mother impressively refusing to even own a T.V. in the house when she was a little girl, Lilia grew up instead with a world class, scholarly education--studying all areas of the arts; reading the greats of literature; and visiting many theatres, concerts, and museums. In addition to American music, she also loves American movies.

Graduating with honors from Moscow State University, the massively talented citizen of the world also even started her own fashion line; a sexy underwear collection for girls, made with the finest imported French silk--naturally, only the best for this lady of class.
