

Barrett Wissman Launches A Retreat for Musicians and Artists in Montana

Barrett Wissman and cellist and composer Nina Kotova have created an idyllic haven for fellow artists and musicians

ROSCOE, MONTANA, USA, September 14, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Picture the scene, vast lush green landscapes, expanses of space, with a vista only interrupted by towering snow-capped Montana mountains. This is the idyllic location of a new artists' retreat coming to Roscoe, Montana in 2018.

Just a mere ninety miles from Yellowstone National Park, it's easy to see that this scene captures the fringes of the park's beauty. Its the perfect vast space in which to develop ideas and musings for any free-thinking artist.

From crystal clear images of its unadulterated views and position, one can almost hear a pin drop. In August, when this coveted space will open, the ground will be dry, not quite dusty, and the mountains will see the development of ideas of many a musician.

This is the W Preserve, a new, exciting, but tranquil haven for artists and musicians.
