

Award-winning documentary coming to a cinema near you

NEW YORK, UNITED STATES, September 22, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ --

"Delay, Deny, Hope You Die" will be coming to select cities in the U.S., starting on October 9.

This important documentary tells the story of American soldiers who returned from the battlefields of Iraq and Afghanistan with severe illnesses from chemical war. They are not the victims of ruthless enemy warfare, but of decisions made by their own military commanders.

This powerful documentary tells an important story that everyone needs to see."

*Brigadier- General (Ret.)
Carol Ann Fausone*

These soldiers, afflicted with everything from respiratory diseases to rare cancers, were sickened by the smoke and ash swirling out of the "burn pits", where both the military and private contractors incinerated mountains of trash. According to soldiers who served there, every type of waste was disposed of and burned, including batteries, appliances, vehicles, plastics, dead animals ... even human body parts. Today, up to 100,000 soldiers are sick and dying.

The documentary is being distributed on a crowdfunding basis. Tickets MUST BE ORDERED IN ADVANCE to confirm each screening. For a complete list of planned screenings, please go to www.facebook.com/burnpitsdocumentary
