Author Shares Edifying and Stirring Worship Songs and Hymns

SAN ANTONIO, TX, UNITED STATES, October 9, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Reading Christian Books and or Bibles can be very different from reading other sources. Some people may be dedicated to doing it, while some are not. Arthur Christopher Gorham presents a book that offers life lessons in a unique and beautiful kind of way, a source that conveys hope to the readers.

Worship Songs and Hymns: For the Modern Christian Church is a collection of 100 scripture-inspired modern songs, mostly written in the traditional style of Christian church songs. Other styles presented are: traditional choir, modern contemporary, klezmer, copla, blues grass, traditional southern gospel, apostolic and pentecostal style songs, classical and big band. Growing up, Gorham was encouraged to learn music at a young age and at the same time to broaden his creative mind in various music genres. After realizing that music was God's Christian calling for him, he devoted himself to the church – thus the birth of this book. He dedicates this book for church worship and guidance to personal growth, his experiences in life encouraged him to walk in the footsteps of the Lord.

This book can be relatable to every reader as it describes God's life changing promises of an eternal life through Jesus Christ. It teaches everyone that living a life with faith can lead a person to where he is supposed to be. This serves a guidance for a renewed life through Jesus Christ. It is not only a good read for the members of the church, but also to those who face struggles and those who are in need of a companion towards setting their life's direction back to God. Worship Songs and Hymns: For the Modern Christian Church is an edifying book, brilliantly put together by Arthur Christopher Gorham.

About the Author:

Born and raised in the state of Texas, he was encouraged to learn about music, learn to sing at a young age and to broaden his creative mind in various music genres. He received music training by his father at a young age. Growing up, he continued to educate himself in music and music theory on his own. He knew at an early age that his music abilities were part of his calling, for God's service. He devoted his talent to his Christian calling. He has pursued biblical and religious studies from bible institutes. Biblical and doctrinal studies would play a major role in his music writing. He believes that the message in each song is more important for the reader to receive. He hopes one can learn and grow and be encouraged through the songs, to walk in the footsteps of the Lord.
