

CSA Balloons Now Offering Balloon Decoration Services in Toronto

After announcing this service in New York last month, CSA now reaches the Canadian metropolis of Toronto.

TORONTO, ONTARIO, CANADA, October 30, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- With a newly concluded partnership with Certified Balloon Decorators from the Greater Toronto Area, CSA Balloons aims to help their Toronto clients create exceptional business events.

Balloon decorations that include your logo will immediately engage your guests and highlight your brand... The investment is priceless!”

Csaba Laviolette, President and Founder of CSA Balloons

Most custom balloon printing companies will only print and deliver the balloons. Once the balloons are received, the event organizers are often confused as to how they should place the balloons to create a desired effect. With this new proposed turnkey service from CSA Balloons, business event organizers no longer have to worry about event decorations. Offering custom balloon printing services to businesses, associations, and even political organizations for over fifteen years, CSA Balloons is THE balloons expert. “CSA Balloons has now become a one-stop shop for all your balloon decorating needs”, said Csaba Laviolette, President and Founder of the top custom balloon printing company in Canada and the USA.

With CSA, Planning an Event is Easy

Prior to having the balloon decoration service offered by CSA Balloons, Toronto businesses looking for more interesting balloon decor, had to hire several vendors to get the decorating job done. In addition to a series of “extra costs”, this also resulted in time-consuming coordinating work for the employees who were given the dreaded task of organizing the upcoming business event. “We hope to provide our customers with a new cost-effective way to organize business events”, mentioned Laviolette.

CSA Balloons customers can now rely on CSA for all their balloon decoration needs. CSA Balloons can design and print custom balloons, plan decor logistics, deliver and set up on the day of the event.

Customizable Decorations from Expert Balloon Printers

Many businesses are looking to create truly unforgettable events. With a client roster that includes some of the world’s most notable brands, the CSA Balloons team knows that any business event is meant to demonstrate and represent a company’s brand, style, image, and knowhow.

Wanting to offer nothing but the best, CSA Balloons partnered with Certified Balloon Artists. Intricate or simple balloon arches, columns, sculptures, or even bouquets; anything can be done by CSA Balloons’ Certified Balloon Artists.

Bonus: with CSA Balloons, all these decorations can be personalized. Prior to delivering the balloons that will make up the decorations, CSA Balloons will custom print them with a company logo or event specific message. "Balloon decorations that include your logo will immediately engage your guests and highlight your brand... The investment is priceless!"

This is a truly interesting service for Toronto companies looking to upgrade their events and engage their audience. Let's hope all North-American businesses will soon be able to benefit from this service.
