

I Quit the NFL Movement Gives Patriots a Way to Raise Awareness for their Cause

T-shirts give people across America a way to support their country and military

LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA, UNITED STATES , December 6, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The team at I Quit the NFL has just announced that they are representing the anti-NFL movement with t-shirts that show support for America and the United States Armed Forces.

Recently, NFL players protested by taking a knee during the National Anthem, which has spurred controversy and hard conversations across the country. Many people have decided to withdraw their support for the NFL, which has led to spiraling NFL viewership and a plethora of problems within the franchise.

I Quit the NFL gives people opposed to the NFL protests a way to voice their opinion. The premium t-shirts are made with high quality fabric and crafted for durability. Each shirt offers an image of the American flag with "IQuittheNFL.com" stamped along the bottom.

The shirts are available in a variety of designs, including t-shirts and long sleeved designs and a range of colors. According to the team at I Quit the NFL, "Together, we can make a difference sending a powerful message that protesting our National Anthem shows disrespect to our country, our military and alienates long time fans and supporters of the NFL."
