

The Internet's 10 Best Tools for Retirement Planning Identified by Topretirements.com

Effective planning for retirement doesn't have to be hard. Topretirements.com has just picked its first list of the top 10 retirement tools on the Internet

KEY WEST, FLORIDA, UNITED STATES, December 6, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- People nearing retirement are deluged with all kinds of offers of retirement planning help on the Internet. Some are useful, many more not so much. To help wade through this thicket Topretirements.com has developed the first list of its kind - the top 10 tools for retirement planning on the Internet. These tools were selected based on their ability to take the drudgery and the guesswork out of the big retirement decisions - where to retire, will I have enough money, how to have a interesting and fulfilling life.

Categories of Tools

The award winners were grouped into five categories representing the major areas where retirees need help with their retirements. Those include Social Security, Healthcare, Retirement Calculator, Where to Live, and Helpful Information Resources.

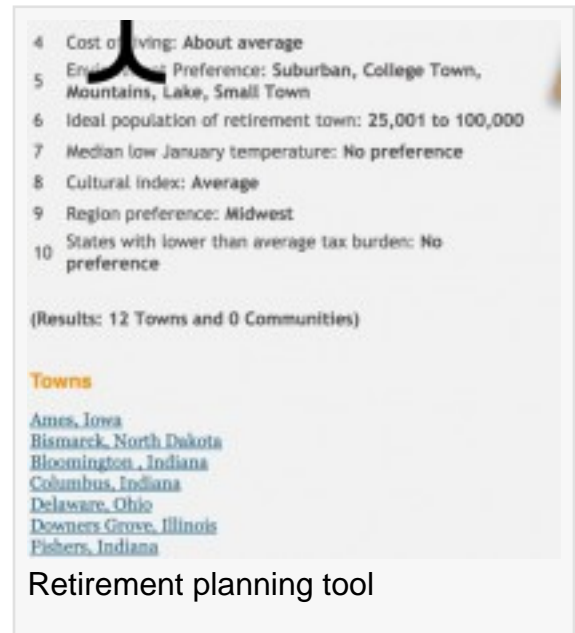

Some of the names at the top will be familiar... and surprising. The SocialSecurity.gov site was the #1 rated tool, followed by Medicare.gov. Topretirements.com picked these websites for top honors because of the great job they do in simplifying the complicated process of registration, as well as in providing clear information.

The editors at Topretirements.com chose two winners in the Retirement Calculator category. The Vanguard Nest Egg Calculator is an easy to use tool that uses Monte Carlo simulations to instantly predicts a person's financial readiness for retirement. SocialSecurity's Retirement Estimator, another choice, effortlessly estimates monthly Social Security payments in a flash. Here is a link to 10 Best Tools for Retirement.
