The Provider of the Year Award is not given out every year. This year, Vice President of State Government Affairs at Autism Speaks, Lorri Unumb, on behalf of Autism Speaks, honored LittleStar ABA Therapy with the nation's 'Provider of the Year' award in appreciation of exceptional advocacy on behalf of individuals with autism.

LittleStar ABA Therapy is based in Indiana with six ABA therapy center locations across the state. LittleStar is the longest running ABA provider in the state of Indiana opening its doors in 2002. The organization operates as a non-profit, and supports efforts to raise funds to help their families when insurance issues arise. The mission of Little Star ABA therapy is to inspire, serve, and guide all those touched by autism to achieve a better reality. As LittleStar’s Chief Operations Officer, Tim Courtney, explains, “Our goal is to help individuals with autism to learn not just to live, but to thrive in the world.”
