

Improv Asylum And MEDIABOSS Partner To Live-Stream Annual 24-Hour Fundraiser

Today, MEDIABOSS announced its partnership with Improv Asylum, to stream their 24-hour improv fundraising event, No Rest for the Wicked Funny, to Facebook Live.

BOSTON, MA, UNITED STATES, December 7, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Today, MEDIABOSS, an award-winning production company located in MetroWest, announced its partnership with famed Boston comedy theater, Improv Asylum, to stream their 24-hour improv event to Improv Asylum's 27K+ Facebook audience. The annual event, No Rest for the Wicked Funny raises money for Globe Santa. Globe Santa exists solely to deliver joy to local children. They provide holiday presents to families in need throughout the Greater Boston area. This year, No Rest for the Wicked Funny will run from 7p.m. December 21st - 7p.m. December 22nd.

"We are excited to bring No Rest for the Wicked Funny to a larger audience again this year. We saw great success from 2016's Live Broadcast, with more than 15,000 people live-streaming us on our first run out of the gate," said Mike Anastasia, co-producer of No Rest for the Wicked Funny. "We're looking forward to giving people a chance to tune in and watch our incredibly talented performers and special guests as they entertain for 24 straight hours. To-date we have raised $277,124.11 for Globe Santa. We hope to raise even more money for the children of Greater Boston this year."

"MEDIABOSS believes in giving back to the community. Partnering with Improv Asylum and donating our time, equipment and expertise to bring their impressive 24-hour improv event, No Rest for the Wicked Funny, to a larger audience was an easy decision," said Ian Barrett, Creative Director of MEDIABOSS. "This year we hope to help Improv Asylum raise the most money they've ever raised for Globe Santa."

Globe Santa was created in 1956 to deliver gifts to local children in need. Today, Globe Santa provides holiday presents to families in need throughout the Greater Boston area.
