

ED CLINE APPRAISALS RELEASES NEW REPORT “CONSUMER GUIDE TO REAL ESTATE APPRAISALS

BEAVER FALLS, PA, USA, January 18, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Ed Cline Appraisals, one of Western Pennsylvania's leading real estate appraisal firms, announced today the release of their free report: “Consumer Guide to Real Estate Appraisals”.

Knowing how or when to hire a licensed real estate appraiser is an important decision that revolves around one of your most valuable assets. This free guide reveals reasons that you might want to hire an appraiser and provides valuable insight on how to choose a real estate appraiser.

“Appraising a property has, on many occasions, allowed two parties to come back to the negotiating table and mutually agree to buy/sell a property based on a price that is more suited to the current market and the transaction was a better fit for all parties involved”, states Ed Cline, Owner – Ed Cline Appraisals.

It doesn't matter what type of property is in question. Our extensive field work and education as certified appraisers make Ed Cline Appraisals qualified to provide home valuations in Western Pennsylvania for clients ranging from national mortgage companies to local lenders or individual businesses and consumers.
