

“A+” for Trump’s First Year: Law Prof Praises as Trump Begins Second Year

As Trump Begins His 2nd Year, D.C. Law Professor Grades Trump's 1st Year an A+ in Four Categories including Trump's Recent Fight Against the Schumer Shutdown

WASHINGTON, D.C. , USA, January 21, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- “Trump earned an ‘A+’ grade for his first year in the White House,” states Law Professor Victor Williams.

Donald Trump is the most disruptive, successful Chief Executive in generations,” argues Williams as Trump enters the second year of his presidency.

“Across a range of four domestic and foreign policy categories, President Trump has earned the highest possible marks” according to University of Maryland Law Professor Victor Williams.

“As Trump enters the second year of his presidency, the average American is far better off than a year ago.”

A Washington, D.C. attorney who has taught law for over twenty years, Victor Williams has prior academic affiliations with Catholic University’s Columbus School of Law, American University’s Washington College of the Law, and the City University of New York’s John Jay College of Criminal Justice.

On the anniversary of Trump’s first year in office, Professor Williams states that Trump has earned stellar marks:

“Any objective analysis of Trump’s stellar domestic economic successes and foreign policy accomplishments would yield top marks for the 45th President. Sadly, most academics and media officials still suffer from Trump Derangement Syndrome. But the average American knows that Trump is an A+ promise keeper.”

Professor Williams lists four categories of the Republic’s 45th President’s stellar accomplishments:

1. Promoting Historic Economic Growth by tax cuts, business tax reforms, unnecessary regulation slashing, and a positive, pro-business bully pulpit;

2. Initiating Transformative Foreign Policy and National Security Reforms including defeating ISIS on critical fronts, instituting travel freezes (bans) from terrorist nations, withdrawing from the Paris climate ruse, and reaffirming America's strong bonds with Israel including the embassy move to Jerusalem,;

3. Mandating Law & Order as a Civil Right with common-sense judicial appointments, deporting violent criminal illegals (they are all criminals), and marshalling resources against MS13 and other vicious gangs;

4. Putting America First in Immigration and Trade Matters by fighting both leftist Democrats and elitist Republicans for a merits-based immigration policy, ending chain migration, ending visa overstay/lotteries, building a southern border Wall, and demanding fair trade policies.

Most recently, Williams argues that President Trump showed tremendous resolve and dedication in fighting against the Schumer Shutdown of the federal government.

Amazingly, Democrats again put the interests of illegal aliens over the interests of the military and other hard-working Americans. Democrats continue a far-left shift with no concern about the safety or welfare of American citizens.

In comparison with the past four presidencies, Trump must be granted the highest marks.

Professor Williams states that in comparison with Barack Obama, Trump's "A+" grade is perhaps not high enough. Trump's stellar accomplishments serve to frame what a failure the Obama eight years were for average, working Americans and for American national security.

Professor Williams was an early primary and then a strong general election supporter of candidate Donald Trump. He founded and now leads America First Lawyers Association to support the Trump Administration. The academic is often referenced as Prof. Victor "4Trump" Williams.
