

ALIST SELECTED AS TOP 50 FOR STARTUP GRIND GLOBAL CONFERENCE

WILMINGTON , NC, USA, February 12, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Today rising startups around the world will gather for the 2018 Startup Grind Global Conference in Silicon Valley. This conference will showcase the world's most innovative startups.

Startup Grind has announced that ALIST, a social giving app, based out of Wilmington, North Carolina, has been selected as Top 50 for their 2018 Global Conference.

StartUp Grind, powered by Google for Entrepreneurs, brings together over 5,000 founders and investors to this annual conference and 250 speakers from the most successful businesses.

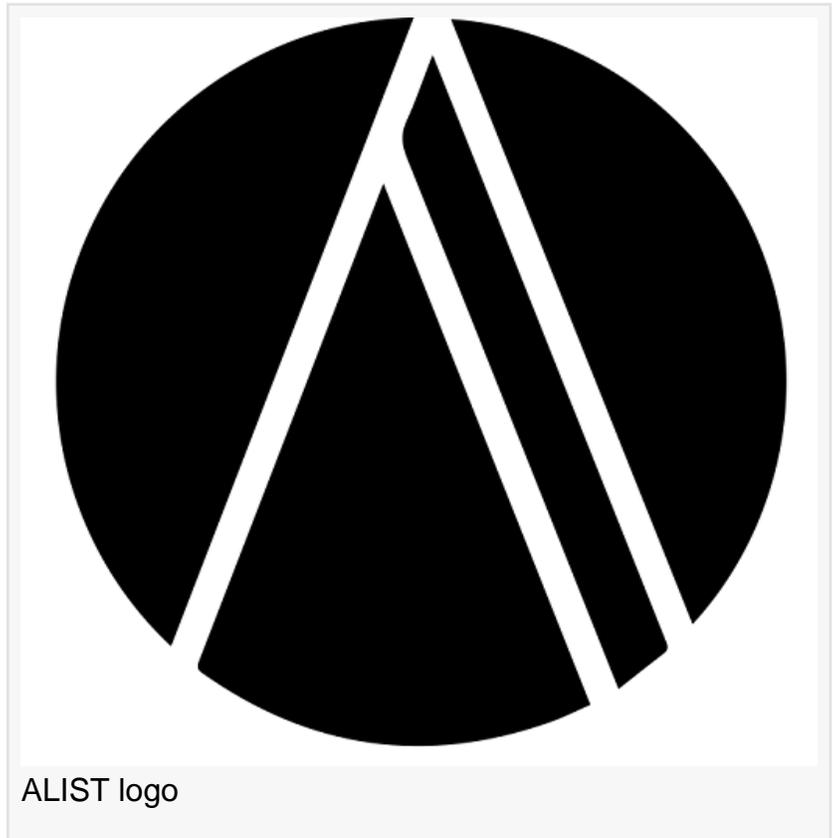

The conference receives more than 10,000 applicants, from over XYZ countries, and hand-selects 100 companies to exhibit. To qualify for the conference, companies must have secured less than $3M in funding.

The Top 50 companies chosen from the Startup Exhibition will be invited to join the Startup Program, which includes: pitch training, onsite branding, and the opportunity to potentially secure an investment through the quickfire pitch.

ALIST, created by Wilmington locals, partners with influential people and brands to promote charitable giving - a unique combination of social media and charity.

ALIST app is free to download in the app stores. To learn more about ALIST, visit: www.ALISTgives.com.
