today's most dangerous email-borne threats with just a few clicks. ZEROSPAM is the ideal Office 365 add-on, offering superior detection of all email-borne threats, safer quarantines and easy access to the logs of the last 30 days.

Resellers will now be able to build Office 365 bundles using ZEROSPAM, thereby ensuring their customers enjoy better protection and increasing the recurring-revenue value of every Office 365 sale. The ZEROSPAM solution is complete and highly effective, especially against phishing and ransomware. A new advanced spearphishing module, available at no extra cost, has recently been added.

With this new module, ZEROSPAM offers the best spearphishing protection available in the market today. After ransomware, spearphishing is second top concern for IT Management teams.

The ZEROSPAM user interface is highly intuitive and available in Spanish and English. ZEROSPAM also offers fast and competent technical support in Spanish. Plus, resellers can have a free 30-day trial for each of their customers.

"Today, the majority of infections start with a dangerous undetected email, comments Joseph Boudahana, VP, Digital Services at Intcomex. Which is why the security market is a key one for Intcomex. ZEROSPAM will be of primary interest to members of the Intcomex Cloud Community and we strive to add products to our offering that support them and help them to build their recurring revenue business. For all these reasons, we are delighted to partner with ZEROSPAM, a well-established and reputed Canadian company who built an excellent solution and has a solid experience of the North-American reseller market and offers leading-edge detection techniques. There is a huge need in the marketplace for high-performance cloud Anti-Spam solutions such as ZEROSPAM, especially when they can so easily be combined with Office 365."

"With its close ties to a huge community of tech-savvy resellers in a wide range of LATAM countries, its forward-thinking approach to the cloud and efficient marketing tools, Intcomex is an ideal partner for ZEROSPAM, says David Poellhuber, President and CEO of ZEROSPAM Security. We want to be part of Intcomex resellers' success and look forward to providing them with training, technical and sales support."
