SEATTLE, WA, USA, March 3, 2018

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Megs McLean debuted never recorded songs from her new album today during a live performance on FOX 28 Spokane, Good Day Gotta Hear This, morning show with anchor Kjerstin Bell. The popular Spokane morning show highlighted Megs as an upcoming original Crunge (Country Rock Grunge) artist during the show as well as a live Facebook interview with anchor Nichole Mischke that can be viewed on their page FOX 28 News and Entertainment <http://www.myfoxspokane.com/video-gallery?autoStart=true&topVideoCatNo=default&clipId=14168966> . Megs and accomplished guitar player Dylan Welsh performed acoustic versions of songs from her EP "Out Of School" including "Don't Speak" and several new originals. The acoustic performance is a very toned down sample of what to expect from Megs with the full band. "It's such an honor, to be selected as the featured artist, said. singer songwriter Megs McLean. Special thank you to Nick Dimico the producer and all the staff at the Fox 28 studio. It is an amazing opportunity to introduce our original Crunge (Country, Rock, Grunge) sound directly into the Spokane marketplace, especially since I included some of my new songs. Spokane heard them first on "Gotta Hear This"
