significant benefit by harvesting a patient’s Mesenchymal Stem Cells (MSCs) and utilizing them to address a number of issues related to muscular skeletal pain. Living Waters is highly focused on addressing quality of life for their patients and pain management is a major area of concern. Ms. Beckler believes that more patients will choose this therapy for chronic pain as awareness of the procedure and its numerous benefits increase.

Barbara is passionate as she shares, “Our number one goal is that all people enjoy life to the fullest and not have pain stop them from reveling in every minute they can.” Utilizing a patient’s own BMDSCs (Bone Marrow derived STEM Cells), provides a natural and convenient alternative for soft tissue repair than costly and more invasive surgical procedures. This type of treatment option has become increasingly popular particularly with professional athletes who turn to the procedure for sports injuries. Countless studies have shown remarkable results when doing an in office Bone Marrow Aspirate Concentration procedure on a patient and utilizing the inherent Mesenchymal STEM cells for direct injection into damaged joints. The treatment is a simple, effective, in-office procedure done in under an hour.

Barbara reports, “The results we have seen to date have been superb and the patients go right back to work immediately after the process. It is both rewarding and encouraging to hear from patients who have been able to discontinue the use of pain killers by actually healing the damage, instead of masking it.”
