

Rothwell Investment Advances Responsible Investment and Stewardship Reporting with Release Of 2017 Report

Rothwell Investment will also develop a new interactive online report with additional in-depth content

HONG KONG, CHINA, April 25, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Rothwell Investment, a leading Asia-based asset manager in charge of investments on behalf of retail and institutional clients that has a considerable investment footprint across Southeast Asia Pacific region, is pleased to announce the future release of its Responsible Investment (RI) Report at the end of the year of 2017, with the objective of improving industry standards relating to responsible investment and stewardship disclosure. The report, which is Annual RI and Stewardship Report from Transparency and disclosure are important components of effective stewardship.”

Sammi Koo

Rothwell Investment, is the first to combine comprehensive information on the investment philosophy, people, stewardship approach and long-term financial performance of the fund manager. Rothwell Investment's Chief Executive Officer Winston Chun Yip said; “The financial services industry is in a constant state of change, particularly in the area of governance, and our clients are now, more than ever, demanding increased transparency and accountability in our reporting. “We believe improving the quality of our communication with clients and other stakeholders on how investors manage complex environmental, social and corporate governance (ESG) issues is critical for building trust in the financial services industry. “We hope that this level of insight and integration in reporting meets and exceeds the increasing expectations of our clients.” Rothwell Investment's Global Head of Responsible Investment, Sammi Koo, said; “Transparency and disclosure are important components of effective stewardship. “This year, we are focusing on disclosing more detail on how RI and stewardship adds value to our investment processes by the inclusion of additional metrics for each investment team as well as significantly improving the depth and interactivity of the report online. “This report should clearly demonstrate the long-term benefits of integrating ESG factors into investment decision-making and ownership-practices.
