

Singer-Songwriter Eddy Mann Announces the Release of the 'Cowboy in the Badlands' Official Lyric Video

Singer-Songwriter Eddy Mann releases 'Cowboy in the Badlands' as the third in a series of lyric videos from the "Simple Things" album.

PHILADELPHIA, PA, UNITED STATES, May 31, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Singer-songwriter Eddy Mann is announcing the release of "Cowboy in the Badlands" as the third in a series of lyric videos from the "Simple Things" album.

Eddy said, "The album's songs were inspired by the paintings of realist artist Thomas Eakins from Philadelphia, PA. There between the brushstrokes of each painting I saw a story, I heard a song, and there in that moment the album began to take form. It's my hope that we can teach a new generation to love and appreciate the arts in new and creative ways while still preserving and passing down our varying cultures."

JamSphere called the album "Awe inspiring!" The Beach Sloth publication wrote that, "Cowboy in the Badlands" goes for a playful quality as the entire piece has almost a flirtatious tone to it."
