The new Attorney General of New York State, Barbara Underwood is attempting to protect Governor Cuomo and his sexual predator cover-up scheme.”

Michael Carey - Advocate for people with disabilities and their families

The new Attorney General of New York State, Barbara Underwood is attempting to protect Governor Cuomo and his sexual predator cover-up scheme. As the first woman to achieve this high position of authority as New York's Attorney General it is outrageous and illegal what she is engaged in. Federal investigations into these criminal cover-ups have been requested. Sexual predators similar to Larry Nassar that take advantage of individuals in the care of New York State run wild within a system that one caught pedophile called “a predator's dream.”
